

WILLIAM HANDS

COLLECTIONS & COLLABORATIONS

Our process starts with a single sheet of white paper, every mark a statement, every thought witnessed, every stroke adding meaning to a moment in time.

Our ideology and passion for creating the highest quality pieces of furniture demands that we only select the finest materials, meticulously crafting our products without compromise. Founded in 1906 William Hands reputation for excellence is the result of exceptional service, craftsmanship and design. Manufacturing from the original site on which the company was founded, William Hands is a symbol of the success and evolution of the British furniture industry.

VANTAGE COLLECTION

We're very pleased with the project and very pleased with the end product, the experience was good and the key was that personal touch. We operate a business which is all about making clients feel important and valued and that's certainly how we felt.

Haig Bathgate, Joint CEO, TCAM

Clients have been blown away by the client meeting suite. They're saying it's warm and comforting, and not ostentatious. They can tell it's a great product.

Slavica Sedlan, Head of Leeds Office for Willis Towers Watson

Having worked with William Hands before, I always found the products to be exceptionally well made. I took the client into the showroom and they fell in love with the product straight away! It was the only product where the original specification didn't change. It was a seamless process, as easy team to work with and a fantastic product range. We are all delighted with the end result.

Hannah Nardini Interior Designer, Twenty 20 Design

We had a good experience in the past with William Hands – the quality you get is worth the extra cost. We give them challenges and they're very quick to respond. I'd have no problem at all in recommending William Hands.

INFINITY TABLES

PRIME TABLES

t's massively important, from my perspective that people come into work and feel a sense of calm and wellbeing. They may start their ourney feeling anxious but I want them to arrive in the office and as soon as they step through the door to think, 'I'm feeling better, my day's going to be good now.

Slavica Sedlan, Head of Leeds for Willis Towers Watson

BESPOKE RECEPTIONS SOLUTIONS

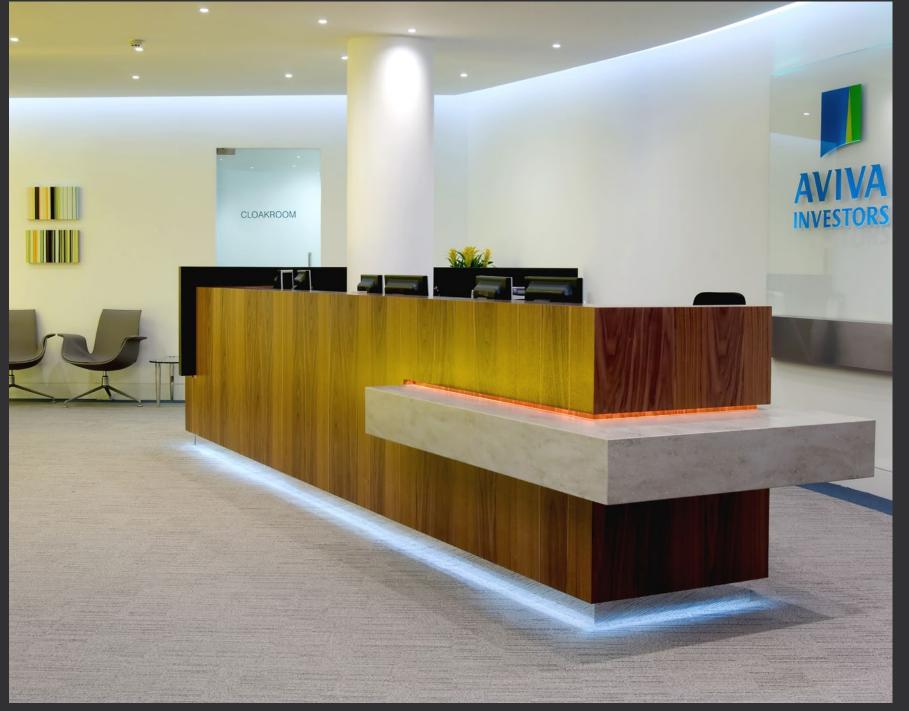

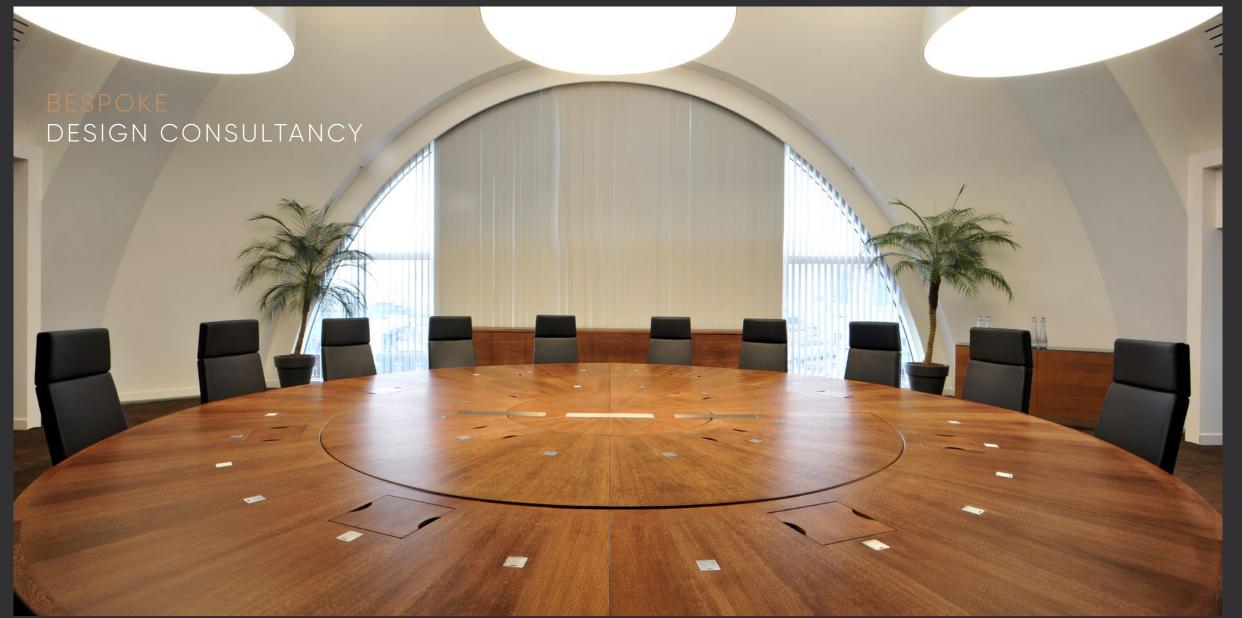

We are extremely happy with our end result, and because of the versatility of the furniture we are also able to use this area to host events. We would absolutely recommend William Hands in the future. Their furniture is very impressive and – along with the quality of their service – this makes them a great company to work with.

Some people produce a great looking product but by the time you've wired it up it just looks like a dog's breakfast, whereas this is beautifully neat, it's hidden it's just first class.

Slavica Sedlan Head of Leeds Office for Willis Towers Watson

BESPOKE DESIGN CONSULTANCY

The skill and craftsmanship of the William Hands team together with their attention to detail when producing bespoke furniture is evident in every piece they make.
